AUCTION POLICY

1. Each dealership must have a complete application, dealer license, dealer bond and sales tax on file. Only dealers complying with the motor vehicle regulations of their state may attend the auction.
2. Dealers are responsible for providing annually updated copies of their dealer license and all changes pertaining to their dealership as they occur.
3. All authorized buyer's and seller's representatives must be listed on the application. The dealership is responsible for all transactions of each of these representatives. The auction will not remove or add any representative without written approval from the owner of the company.
4. A current driver's license must be used to enter the auction grounds and may be checked periodically by security.
5. NO retail customers are allowed. Any violation of this policy will result in revocation of auction privileges. Dealers are solely responsible for their employees and drivers.
6. NO children are allowed.
7. The auction reserves the right to refuse to auction any vehicle. The auction has the right to refuse or cancel any sale for any reason.
8. Personal checks are not accepted. If writing a check, it must be a business check approved by Statewide Auto Auction.
9. A service fee of $100 will be charged for all returned checks. Restitution must be made before being readmitted into the auction. The dealer here in grants permission to the auction to sell any vehicle to offset any outstanding checks or fees.
10. A late fee of $100, per vehicle will be charged for any vehicle not paid for by end of sale. If bids must be paid for by 4:00pm the following business day to avoid a late fee.
11. The seller is responsible for the accuracy of the vehicles information as well as announcements and accompanying lights. Representations must be announced through the auctioneer. It is the seller's obligation to correct any errors made by the auctioneer as to "announced conditions."
12. The auctioneer determines the successful bidder. By not signing the bill of sale, the buyer is not released from the purchase and is liable for any losses or expenses.
13. Auction is not bound by information listed in Electronic Data Vehicle Histories (EDVH), i.e. Carfax, Auto check, etc. and any vehicle may not be arbitrated solely on EDVH data. Auction may investigate vehicle history based on information that may impact arbitration.
14. The auction reserves the right to correct clerical errors.
15. Statewide Auction is not responsible for any missing keys, theft or damage of any vehicle and/or personal property theft on premises.
16. All vehicles on the Auction Property for more than 6 working days will be stored at the owners' expense
17. Any stipulations, promises or guarantees made between buyer and seller must appear in writing on the bill of sale before it may become part of the transaction. The Auction assumes no responsibility for verbal commitments between buyer and seller.

ARBITRATION POLICY

Arbitration requests must be made in person by end of day on the day of sale. All defects must be listed, as only one arbitration per vehicle will be allowed. In matters of interpretation of auction policy, the decision of the auction management will be final.

All boats, campers, RV's, ATV'S, trailers and motorcycles are not arbitrable for any reason. Recreational vehicles all must be free of taxes and liens. Statewide Auction does not guarantee the year, make, model or paperwork for any boat, camper, RV, ATV, trailer or motorcycle.
